Community Center Fund Drive Starts Friday, June 14

DESIGNED TO FIT into the desert the New Community Church will accommodate 350 people and feature many conveniences such as a nursery so mothers can care for infants and still enjoy the services.

THE NEW YOUTH CENTER will provide year-around recreation for the youth of our community, and such a program is already being organized. The buildings will be air conditioned and heated, Rev. Hansen reports.

CHURCH FOR 350, YEAR AROUND YOUTH CENTER INCLUDED IN PLAN

by Rev. David Hansen

The long awaited and much needed plans for a new Community Church have been finally brought into actuality. This new building is so designed that it can better accommodate the various spiritual and social needs of the church and community.

The architecture is in keeping with the desert and will richly enhance the beauty of the community as a whole. The church will accommodate 350 (seating capacity), plus many conveniences, such as a nursery so arranged that mothers may care for their infants while at the same time enjoying the service. Air conditioning and heating will be so designed as to give maximum comfort.

The Youth Center will provide ALL YEAR ROUND recreation for the youth of the Hi-Desert. An intelligent organized program is even now being developed. As long as it does not interfere with the program for the youth, concerts, plays, community social events, conventions etc., it will be enjoyed.

This total program is sponsored by the Community Church for the community. The Community Church is not affiliated with any outside organization or denomination. The purpose for this stand is not that the church is anti-denominational, but rather it wishes to place itself in a position to accommodate the various denominational backgrounds represented in our community.

This church was founded by the citizens of this community with this objective in mind. Needless to say there are some disadvantages as well as advantages. One of the disadvantages is in terms of financial aid. This, to a large extent, has been compensated by the tremendous enthusiasm shown by various interested outside non-resident groups and individuals, to say nothing of local support. To our advantage and certainly a very important one, is that every cent that is given to the church is an $100 per cent (plus interest) investment retained within the community for its own development. This means that the program and policies of the Church and Youth Center are to be dictated by our own community within the limits of the incorporation.

There will be a financial drive starting on June 14 through June 17 for a concentrated effort to start the building program on its way immediately. This is a great work of faith. What a great spiritual experience it is to be a part of a work of such a nature. This financial drive will be culminated by a Victory Barbecue Social for the members of this community. The Church wishes to express its deepest gratitude for the confidence that the community has displayed in our behalf.

Mrs. Pausch New Woman's Club President

Bringing to a close an interesting and successful year for the Yucca Valley Woman's Club, a luncheon and installation of officers for the coming year, was an event of last Saturday, June 1, at the Community Club.

Covers were laid for thirty-two club members and guests at the luncheon tables, gay with colorful flower arrangements by Mrs. Mabel Godwin.

Mrs. Edna Jenkins installed the following officers: Mrs. Beulah Pausch, president; Mrs. Vera Stoneham, first vice-president; Mrs. Elsie Marshall, second vice-president; Mrs. Helen Key, recording secretary; Mrs. Edith Howland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hazel Yale, treasurer; Mrs. Lillian Jacobs, parliamentarian; Mrs. Mabel Godwin, historian.

Miss Jessie Ray Taylor of Joshua Tree, presented an interesting and entertaining program for the afternoon with her outstanding impersonations.

A gift of appreciation was presented to Mrs. Pausch, president of the club during the past year.

This is the last club meeting until September, but meetings of the Board will be held during the summer on the second Tuesday of each month.

MOLDENHAUERS BACK AFTER VACATION

Mrs. Mary Moldenhauer and her mother traveled to Santa Ana where she visited her sister Mrs. Jack La Rue and then to Fullerton where they stayed with another sister Mrs. Mamie Early.

They left Yucca Valley early Tuesday morning and got back on Friday. They enjoyed their little vacation but are glad to get home.

Where Do We Go From Here ???

The advisory committee of the Desert Star, together with the Chamber of Commerce board, met at the office last Thursday to consider the advisability of turning the paper over to other interests at the present time.

It is realized that the chamber has "no business in the publishing business", permanently, and the Star was sponsored as a means of demonstrating to commercial publishers that a weekly paper in Yucca Valley was now a feasible venture.

We now have two different parties interested in taking over, either of whom appears to be fully qualified to give the area the sort of paper we should have. An investigation is now under way to determine our best course of action.

In the meantime we would like to hear from our readers and advertisers as to how we may best improve on the services we are trying to render.

Colorful Morongo Valley Fiesta Draws Many to Booths, Dance, Midway Acts

With colorful pennants to decorate the many booths, dance floor and midway attractions, at Covington Park among the trees, the Fiesta, which is an annual event of Morongo Valley, got off to a good start Saturday, June 1, and was well attended also on Sunday, June 2.

The barbecue proved a big attraction and the picnic tables under the trees were enjoyed by many visitors.

As a benefit for the park improvement, three special prizes, were offered and Rae Bissell of the Riverside Cement Company, Corona, won the camera; Henry Kodele of Morongo Valley, the radio; and F. Duncan of Morongo Valley, the lamp.

Now that our warm weather has arrived, give the little woman a break. Take her and the kids out to dinner at one of our excellent eating places.

If you feel for a little ride in the cool of the day, why not try Burnt Mountain Dining Room, or the Red Dog or Golden Stallion in Pioneertown. Nearer at hand, in town, you can't miss at Calahans, Yucca Valley Coffee Shop, The Wagon Wheel, or Mac's—successor to Ray's Cafe. For a sandwich and beer try Bud's Place.

All are good places to eat, and no cooking or dish washing for the other half when it is so hot.

Good Neighbors

The support and endorsement of the Desert Star, now being received from the neighboring communities of Joshua Tree and Twentynine Palms, is highly gratifying to those of us who have been grappling with the problems of launching a newspaper without benefit of personal experience or capital.

This is especially the case in view of the fact that, up to the present time, we have devoted our energies almost exclusively to the immediate Yucca Valley area. We will soon be looking for correspondents in all our neighboring towns.

Toastmistresses of Morongo Basin Announce Officers for Next Year

by Charlotte Kincaid

The Toastmistress Club of Morongo Basin held their luncheon meeting at Callahan's in Yucca Valley, Tuesday, May 28, with Nina Horn, president, presiding.

Election of officers for the coming year was the keynote of the afternoon. Clara Brownlee will be the new president, Helen Boyd, vice president and program chairman, Betty Ehrismann, secretary, Helene Fisher, treasurer and Chris Hammett as club representative.

An inspirational introduction of the speaker, Miss Jesse Rae Taylor, was given by Gloria Amrine who concluded her talk with an amusing little poem, "I'm fully aware that my youth has been spent, and my get up and go has got up and went, But I really don't mind when I think with a grin, Of all the good places my get up has been."

Miss Taylor spoke on voice resonance and its projection. "Talk as though you are directing your speech to the last man in the house," she advised.

The report given by the delegates, Helen Boyd and Mrs. Roswald F. Smith on the Southwest Regional Conference International Toastmistresses Club was very interesting.

The Phoenix Bird was captured by Mrs. Smith while attending the conference and brought back to delight members at the luncheon. A fabulous bird this Phoenix Bird, with brilliant colored plumage of crepe paper, very large feet firmly planted and a large discerning eye.

Guest Pastors At Light and Life Chapel

The Light and Life Chapel had the privilege of having two young couples take over the morning and evening services this past Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pound from Pasadena, with their six month old son, Alfred Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James A. DeSpain from Los Angeles.

Mr. DeSpain, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. DeSpain of Yucca Valley, who is studying for the ministry at Los Angeles Pacific College, delivered the sermon in the morning services.

In the evening, Alfred Pound spoke. He also sang a special number, accompanied by Mrs. Pound on the piano.

Mr. Pound is attending school at Pasadena College, preparing to be a chaplain in the Air Force.

It was a real treat to hear these young people.

Dr. Irma Glen To Appear at Community Hall

Dr. Irma Glen, America's distinguished minister and organist, will present a program at the Community Hall in Morongo Valley, Friday evening at 7:45, subject—"Prayer is the Answer". Dr. of music and RFC Minister, Church of Religious Science, Dr. Glenn has been on TV, radio, and has played in Carnegie Hall.

Legion Joins In Memorial Day Ceremonies

Yucca Valley Post 469, of the American Legion and Unit 469, of the American Legion Auxiliary, attended the Memorial service at 29 Palms Cemetery, on Memorial Day.

The Post presented its colors. Prayers were offered by Chaplains from the Marine base. The Marines also provided a bugler and a firing squad.

brought the meeting to a close, "From a far away land of similar clime, Comes a legend of the Phoenix Bird sublime, He rises from ashes with life anew, With flame 'round his feet a glorious hue, Onward and upward to heights untold, He lives forever and never grows old.

This is a fable we all agree, But why not adopt his philosophy, Rise to your feet, your message unfold A pleasure to hear, A delight to behold."

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, June 11, at the P. and E. Restaurant in Joshua Tree.

RIM ROCK . . .

by Irene Fox

While attending a meeting of the Rim Rock Property Owners' Association at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Farr Jr. of Burbank, members inquired, "What's the latest with the REA?" I've been informed that work is to commence no later than July 9. Therefore, if you are pledged with the Desert Electric Corp., Inc., is your home wired? Our place looked like a Christmas tree when Mr. Ehrismann, our electrician, gave a final testing of all circuits.

Appears like a quiet week, yet quite a number, for Rim Rock, are here. Tom and Ruby Vincent at their place. Opie and Thelma Walker busy as usual. Seems such a long time building a place when one has but the weekends to accomplish such a project.

McDonalds place occupied too, hear tell it is rented, so new neighbors welcome. Mrs. Mildred King from Long Beach and a new comer to this neighborhood is renting the Joan Hayes home.

Dee Blanchard dashes in for a day or two when time permits from her work to see progress of the alterations being made at her home. Harold Church on vacation staying at the Cawthon home. He's no stranger to this area owns property here and a building on Mane street of Pioneertown.

Enthusied and anticipating an early return to locate in these hills are Mr. and Mrs. Manco J. Flynn of Northridge who spent the weekend at "Doyle's Estate" in Rattle Snake Canyon. With them were Mr. and Mrs. Durker.

GOLF DOPE

By Wes Yale

29 Palms met their toughest competition this week from March Air Force Base going down to 30 points out of 12. The 29 boys still lead the league though. A new course record was made Wednesday by a lad from March Field—a low 68.

This warmer weather brought out a lot of players this week, Palm Springs was well represented. The pop machine sure got a work out this week—me along with it trying to keep it loaded. We had a couple from Fairbanks, Alaska, said they loved our wonderful air and climate and also the golf course.

Welcome as new members this week are Glen Harris from La Habra, (Glen has a beautiful home here in Yucca and plans to be here permanently soon), Emo Binotti from 29, Barrett Hanawalt from Hollywood and the Roger Stines of Yucca.

Dr. Kenneth B. Kincy the new M.D. down at 29 Palms came in and played the course this week, liked it very much said we would be seeing a lot of him here in Yucca, Doc came down from Fairfield, Calif., recently. Welcome to the Hi-Desert, Doc.

A lad lost the works out of his watch out on the course the other day, yes some one found it and brought it in still running. Gals, don't believe every thing you hear, Pro. Kenny is unattached, not married I mean.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH HAS PICNIC

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. Ramsey Williams of the Assembly of God Church held their monthly picnic this time at Christ's Park in Yucca Valley. Twenty-seven members of the church and their children enjoyed the outing of good fellowship and fun.

Sack racing, baseball and other games were the attractions of the day with Harry Pritchett furnishing the music on his guitar for a song fest.

Elsie and Harry Guinan have introduced their weekend guests to the beauty and quietness of Rim Rock, also on a tour of this area and a visit with the Fox's, Art Wallace of Yucca Valley and Lou and George Rogers of Phoenix, Arizona.

Sheriff's Rodeo June 22-23

Approval of the fourth Annual Sheriff's Rodeo was received from the Rodeo Cowboy's Association, Sheriff Joe Rice, President of the Riverside County Sheriff's Relief Association, announced this week.

Scheduled for two days, June 22-23, the rodeo will be staged in Riverside's De Anza Park, Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon.

"One hundred and fifty one cowboys competed in last year's championship contest," Sheriff Rice noted, and we fully expect as many to be on hand this year to try for a share of the $1500 purse.

The weekend western event will begin with a parade down Riverside's Main Street. Thousands of spectators line the curbs to watch the finest riders, costumes, horses and floats vying for first place trophies sponsored by Riverside Merchants.

Tickets will be on sale during the month of May and until rodeo time by Deputy Sheriff's, interested agencies and cooperating merchants in the Riverside area. Admission prices are set at 50c for children under 12, $1.50, general admission and $1.95 for grandstand seats.

STAR BEAMS . . .

Two beautifully costumed little charmers, Sharon and Susan Livingston, winners in the Grubstake Days parade, posed graciously and tirelessly for photographers Sunday afternoon. Sponsored by the Red Dog Cafe in the parade, the girls rode Gypsy and Minad, fine horses of Dr. and Mrs. Lekstrum of Twenty-nine Palms. Sharon won first place as the "most typical Indian", Susan a first as a "Spanish Lady". They are previous winners in Grubstake Days and in Pioneer Days parades. Sponsored again by the Red Dog they are riding in the Beaumont Cherry Festival.

Sam and Quincy Ward, after a too long absence, returned with friends from L.A., making their first trip to the Hi-Desert. Betty and Julian Caldwell after an extensive sight seeing tour ended up in Pioneertown and said: "This is it, some day we're going to live here." I guess you know how we just hate such statements!

Marj. Hamilton is staying for some time in San Bernardino with daughter, Lois, for the sole purpose of cuddling and spoiling the new grandchild, little Patricia Gay Mullins.

Harry and Ann Casey of San Fernando are putting the old song in reverse. After their third trip here, they've decided this is where they are going to "Settle Down and Never More Roam" so are looking for a suitable business to produce the necessary wherewithall.

Jack Robin spent the week end working, — well, at least they did some work, on their little desert hacienda.

Also the N. C. Nash's of Gardena were in town looking for More property. Some people know a good thing when they see it!

At the Townhouse resting and, (quote) "sleeping 'round the clock", were the John Reedy's of Los Angeles, who have been visiting us for years, but now have decided to put down roots here.

Riding Club members from Long Beach, Compton, Piedmont and Norwalk kept the town jumping, and I do mean "JUMPING", over the week end. It was dangerous to try to cross the street, until a little law and order was established. I've said it before, but I'll reiterate: "PU-LEEZ,—this is a privately owned street, — not a race track!" And if we are not shown a little consideration, we'll close it again.

Hester Downing broke out in a rash of week end guests. Merle and Thelma Correll of Compton; Vern and Juanita Evans of Hawthorne and Ted and Bea Ellis of Long Beach. All report a good time.

Everyone is concerned and so sorry about the accident to Lee Thatcher. We're hoping, of course, for a speedy recovery.

ADAM'S RIB
Smug and self-satisfied today
Is the modern woman trend.
I think of womanhood of yore,
The womanhood of when
Women wore skirts decorously,
And men were not aghast
At trousered fantasies that grace
The hip line fore and aft.
The Rib is not the same today,
For something, gadget-wise,
Has changed the tenure of her ways.
Each day a new surprise
In fashion or in fad springs up,
Never a moment is lost
To conjure up new hoop de la's,
Each hour is double-crossed
To make way for some new design,
And, with that subtle hook,
To capture "oh's and ah's" the male,
And keep im on the look.

Gleanings From Father's Scrapbook

By Charlotte Kincaid
THE BORROWED MIRROR
 By Benjamin De Casseres
 "What will other people think," is the most cowardly phrase in society. Only weak men stand in fear of the censure upon the head of the doer. A man who lives, moves, and has his being in other people's opinions has not risen to the level of animal intelligence. The dog and horse are at least sincere and natural in all their acts. Why not dress before your own mirror? Look for your own reflection in your own mind. There is a secret judge of all your acts within you. Conscience is your private opinion of yourself. Why borrow a thing when you possess it yourself? What does it matter what others think of your actions? What do you think of them?

Some men crouch, crawl and skulk all their lives. They are cowed by a whisper; their purpose is shaken by a look. They run like sheep before somebody's opinion, though they would return blow for blow if attacked on the highway.

They are larded, curled and greased wax figures. Whenever they move you know that Public Opinion has pulled a wire somewhere. When they speak you know what they will say. They are not men enough to offend.

The ogre Public Opinion, slays more originality and individuality than all the barbarous superstitious codes put together. It is the modern Moloch before which we all meekly bend.

FLYING SPARKS FROM BURNT MOUNTAIN

by the Mick

Maudie Landgraf's Burnt Mt. Trailer Park was full to capacity over the Memorial weekend. Trailers and many guests. Never a dull moment.

Little Greg Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlson of Long Beach, weekenders at the Trailer Park, — fell from his horse "Buddy", on Friday—he was rushed to 29 Palms hospital. Thankful for just a broken collar bone. Good sailing, Greg.

As usual the swimming pool at Burnt Mt. Ranch was the only cool spot in this area over this real warm weekend. Come up and enjoy it with us.

The Sampson's Friendly Burnt Mountain Rancho Motel, has had some very special guests this past week, Miss Lou Nelson and Mr. Ray Sevier, who are appearing in 29 Palms. The entertainers have been having a wonderful time relaxing, swimming, and working in this wonderful "Desert" of ours.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Adams of Vista, were visiting the William Pattens of Burnt Mountain Trailer Park over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald G. Anderson of L.A., (latter is Margaret in One Man's Family), niece of Maud Landgraf and Roy Roush, had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Stewart of Inglewood for over the Memorial Day weekend at Burnt Mountain Trailer Park.

Yucca Valley Horse Owners' Association had a ride to Covington Park in Morongo Valley Sunday, according to Mrs. Belcher of Circle 8 Skating Rink.

And speakin' of Kids—Annabelle delivered three,—two little Nannies and a Billie, all cute as buttons tho' still a bit unstable,—for Goat - Happy Windles. Wonder where we can find a Goat Ranch.

He spoke wisely who said, "Resist beginnings; all too late the cure when ills have gathered strength by long delay."

Sunday, June 9 and Monday, June 10, the people of Yucca Valley will have the privilege of hearing Kenneth Jones speak. Mr. Jones is a man who for 33 years had a criminal record and twenty-seven years of that time was addicted to narcotics—marijuana, morphine, opium and heroin.

Sunday morning, June 9, he will be speaking at the Light and Life Chapel at 11:00.

Sunday evening at 7:30, he will speak at the Community Church.

All are invited to hear these inspiring messages.

Monday, June 10 there will be a Men's Fellowship meeting at the Community Hall, starting with a pot-luck dinner at 6:30. This will be followed by a talk from Mr. Kenneth Jones.

All men in the village are welcome.

Yucca Valley Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Bass of Los Angeles, spent the weekend at their Yucca Valley home on Jemez Trail.

Muriel Perrin is wearing the new permanent which she won at the Queen's coronation ball, Grubstake Days, donated by Evelyn, owner of Peggy's Beauty Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Rothman and daughter Miss Fanlou, have returned home from a trip to Arizona. They visited Oak Creek Canyon and Sedona, and enjoyed driving over the new Black Canyon highway to Phoenix, which cuts off 85 miles from Sedona to Phoenix. At Mesa, they visited with their daughter Miss Maxine Rothman.

Guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben G. Martin, are Mrs. Martin's sister, Mrs. Pearl Flint of Los Angeles, and Mr. Martin's brother, Will Martin of Monrovia.

Mrs. Eleanor L. Cain of Santa Ana, drove up to Yucca Valley, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jacobs.

Word has been received from friends of Mr. and Mrs. Penrose, that they are now enjoying a visit with friends in Boston, after a pleasant cross country trip.

Yucca Mesa Notes

by Larry Asmus

Joe and Helen Necha, of Lake-wood, spent the long weekend at their cabin, on Yucca Mesa. They have just recently completed their bathroom and are planning to replace the tank house, which burned several years ago. They expect to live out here permanently when Joe retires. Their daughter and son-in-law, Russell and Bernice Cornow, of Altadena, have a cabin in the five acres next to them.

W. C. Smith, of San Clemente, is working hard to get his place in shape so he can take his picture and send for his patent. He is a retired railroader and plans to live out here soon.

Louise and Dick Morrison and their four J's were guests, of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Forshaw. They arrived late Wednesday night and stayed until Saturday. The four J's are: Janie, Jerry, Johnny and Jimmy. The Forshaw's have made their home out here for several years. He is retired.

Ed and Millie Malia spent a long week-end with their daughter in Garden Grove. Ed has some loved ones in the cemetery there and makes the trip each year to decorate their graves. Ed is a retired oil field worker and Millie is a retired railroad nurse. The Malia's have resided on Yucca Mesa for a number of years.

Evelyn Paxton of Hollywood spent the recent weekend with her mother, Mrs. June Le Mert Paxton at "The Joshuas". Evelyn brought with her, Mariet Lamb and Sylvia Gaustad. Returning to the city they were accompanied by Minnie Lee Pruitt of Huntington Beach, who has been a house guest at the Paxton cabin for the past three weeks.
